

LONDON, May 29.—General Sir Garnet Wolsey and staff, will sail from Dartmouth tomorrow, in the steamer Edinburgh Castle, for Cape Good Hope, to assume command in South Africa.

The following is a correct list of the law, and denounce criminals, and ed terms, but at the same time, impliedly least, they indorse and encourage the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, the source of three-fourths of all crimes. The English language does not furnish them with words strong enough to pour out their vials of wrath upon fraud, corruption and dishonesty in private and public life, and yet the fountain-head of these evils passed unnoticed.

At a session of the ways and means committee to-day Mr. Felton, of Georgia, of-

The agricultural department is kept well supplied with specimens of vegetables from all parts of the state.

The legislature will meet on Wednesday, the 10th of July—four weeks from next Wednesday. There is some telling how long the law-makers will be in session.

LIBRARIAN FRANK HARRISON would be greatly obliged if the various gentlemen who have had out books for several weeks would return them as soon as it is convenient to do so.

"What we want down there is to be allowed to develop the material resources of our part of the country which has of course suffered most from the war and its consequences. We want to be allowed to get back some of the wealth that we have lost. We want in a word to be let alone."

"What is the feeling in the south, governor, in relation to the repeal measures introduced by the democrats in congress, and tagged on to the appropriation bills, the use

A Crazy Tenor.
Special dispatch to The Constitution.
DAYTON, O., May 30.—F. C. Packard, the celebrated tenor of the Carl Rosa opera troupe, was found here yesterday morning deranged and was taken to the station house, where his identity became known and friends were telegraphed for. He was to be married in a few days to Miss Julia Gaylord, leading soprano of the Rosa troupe. His condition is regarded as critical.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Louisa Bonaveri, age 54, was killed by her husband with a razor. The murderer was arrested.

SNOW HILL, Md., May 29.—The trial of Lillie Durer, charged with the murder of Ellen Hearn, commenced to-day. The plea of not guilty was entered.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Wm. E. Gray, re

The average salary of Methodist ministers in fourteen southern conferences is said to be $7,000 and the average amount paid $4,200. In northern conferences the average is $7,000, and the deficiency in payments about 12 per cent.

The Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta railroad company has placed notices at its depots expressing prohibiting persons from going upon or between any of the railroad tracks of the company except at public crossings. Suits for damages are becoming too frequent.

